What can I do with my major...

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Baccalaureate Program of Criminal Justice Studies is the study of the structure, functions and decision-making processes of the police, courts and correctional agencies involved in the control and management of criminal offenders. The discipline examines the causes and patterns of criminal behavior and the role of the law in regulating both crime and the operation of the criminal justice system. Furthermore, the program provides students with the opportunity to gain necessary skills in the area of program development and evaluation as well as planning and research within the field of criminal justice.

Bacone offers the following degrees in Criminal Justice Studies: Associate of Science in CJS, Bachelor of Arts in CJS and Bachelor of Science in CJS.
