

Academics

- Accounting
- Bacone School of Indian Art
- American Indian Studies
- American Indian Ministry
- Business Administration
- Christian Ministry
- Sports Management
- Christian Counseling
- Elementary Education
- Exercise Science
- Family Studies: social work, education
- Liberal Arts: English, communications, history, interdisciplinary studies
- Radiography
- Rennard Strickland School of Tribal Law & Criminal Justice

Annual Cost

Full-time Undergraduate:

Tuition & Fees: $14,700

Room & Board: $8,600

Total Estimated Cost: $23,300

Financial Aid:

Native American Students Receive
$10,000 Scholarship

One-on-One Assistance with Outside Aid and Tribal Scholarships
60% of Students are Pell eligible

Accredited since 1965

13:1 Student-Professor Ratio

49% Native American Staff

65 % Native American Student Population

Student body represents over 40 tribes/nations

4% International Students

BACONE COLLEGE

Facts & Figures
2019-2020

Serving Native American Students Since 1880

Oklahoma's Oldest Higher Education Institution

Prominent Indian Art program & Renowned Indian Art Collection

Partners in Education With the Following Tribes:

United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians

Osage Nation of Oklahoma

Otoe-Missouria Tribe of Oklahoma

Cheyenne & Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma

Kiowa Tribe

- Student Support Services
- TRIO tutoring sessions
- TRIO counseling services
- Internship opportunities
- Graduate school tours
- Assistance with grad school applications

Athletics

Bacone College competes in the NAIA Division II, Association of Independent Institutions

Men's Basketball

Women's Basketball

Men's Soccer

Women's Soccer

Cross Country/Track

Softball

Baseball

67% of our student/athletes are Native American!

